

BAREND SHOWS CLASS IN FIGHT; FELDMAN PLAYS SEVENTH INFEANTY

Army Featherweight Champion Has Uppercut With Real Punch—Baseball Fans Grow Excited Over York—Graham Pitching Encounter on Sunday Afternoon—Who Won Boxing Bout at Columbus?

BY "HECK."

THOSE fortunate enough to have seen the boxing bouts at the Columbus Friday night, at the new market building, are strong boosters for "Kid" Barend, of the 20th Infantry, to retain the featherweight championship of the world in his bout at the Camp Cotton arena, Monday night, with Tommy Livingston, of the Pennsylvania glove pusher.

Barend worked four sensational rounds with his sparring partner, "Kid" Russell. He knocked 12 pounds to Russell, but this didn't seem to daunt the army champion at all and he tore in from bell to bell. Barend demonstrated that he has a real kick in his uppercut and it was this that the featherweight who rushes into it.

This exhibition did a lot to reestablish Barend as the favorite in Monday's bout. It also stimulated a demand for the pastebards and the supply at the local hotels was sold out after the smoker. There are still a few reserved seats left, but it is certain that a great many civilian fans who intend to see this bout will have to be content with bleacher seats. At that, it should be worth while.

The preliminary card also looks up as extra good and champion H. A. Choinard, of the 2nd Infantry, is establishing a record as a "crackjack" matchmaker.

Chief interest in Sunday's ball games is centered in the first afternoon contest between the Seventh Infantry and the Feldmans. Graham is to pitch for the photographers and York for the soldiers and this should be a real battle.

"Doc" McCannant is quite confident that the Feldmans will win. He sizes up the two teams in the following comment: "Graham and Hornbush are the equals of York and Gallaher for the battery work. Benjamin, at first, is better than Natchez while Billy He is an superior second baseman to either Steele or Reardon. Mander, the new third baseman of my team, is a wonder on the 'hot corner,' and excels Bybee.

Martin since he has started hitting a slight margin over Buchanan at short, but I believe our infield is better than that of the Seventh.

The soldiers may have it on a bit in the outfield, particularly if they play Steele in the garden, where he really belongs. Wright should hold his own with Klier and I believe that Stan-ford, who will play center for us, is as good as Debar, Longmire plays a mighty good game in any position, and I look for him to equal the work of Barrett in right.

I realize that we are up against a real team, but, say, just whisper it gently, that there's going to be a real ball game on Sunday.

The morning game is a mighty important one for the Wals team. If the Krakachas, who will pitch (Koscel) again, win it means that the Mexicans will have to be content with third place. If the Wals team wins, they will have a good chance of finishing in second place.

And then the old rivals, Everbodies and Puritas, will wind up the day's sport. The clerks have been on the kids a bit lately, but manager Lewis has been digging up some new men and is confident that he will take the measure of the bakers, who may lose their last chance for the pennant, if they are defeated.

Here's a fan with a problem. Probably some one can answer this: "Some time ago there was an article in the Amer. Corner regarding the publication of the returns of the fight between Young Allen and Chuck Kinney, that was to be held in Columbus, N. M., September 11, and I believe Allen requested the returns to be printed exactly as sent in his him. Evidently the fight never came off, or young Allen was ashamed to publish the returns. Something is wrong. Perhaps Allen beat up Kinney so bad that he did not consider it worth publishing or perhaps 'Young' Allen's little star got pretty dim in the ninth and tenth. Anyhow, there are a lot of faithful followers of both men that would like a public opinion of the bout. Don't lose a chance for a little advertising for your club, Mr. Allen."

"You'll need this tomorrow," said "Captain Jack" Wolf, of Milwaukee, Wis., handing an excellent Milwaukee of himself to a Chicago chronicler of sporting events, at the Grand American Traps shooting tournament in St. Louis, Mo., "for I am going to win the Grand American Handicap today."

Wolf may have been joking at the time, but it was not joke when he finished the event for he had won. At the time of the above remark Wolf was one down in 20, having missed his sixth target. There were several with scores of 20, and a number of others in the 19's.
